Neighbors’ Core Values

Respect - We believe that all persons are persons of value and worth and we treat each person with courteous regard.

Empowerment - We believe that every person has the ability to make life choices that can lead to self-sufficiency.

Compassion - We care about, and are conscious of, the sufferings or troubles of others and have a sincere desire to help alleviate their burdens.

Fairness - We believe that every person with whom we come in contact has the right to be treated justly and honestly, free from self-interest, prejudice or favoritism.
